

Paper – too good to waste

Description

Here at Livemore, we are always trying to find ways to help the environment. Our most recent eco-friendly solution is to maximise the benefits of waste shredded paper by encouraging the team to use it to boost their garden compost.

Did you know, that composted shredded paper is not only great news for plant and soil health but worms love it too!!